Technical Information

- Creating value for our customers and token holders is at the heart of our mission at Lupo. As an authentic Italian e-commerce platform, we strive to deliver exceptional value through our innovative business model.
- Our recent fair launch on the PEPU PUMFUN platform was a strategic initiative to ensure transparency and equity for all participants. To further incentivize long-term token holders, we have allocated 0.5% of our sales profits to the repurchase of LUPO tokens from the open market. These tokens will then be distributed to our loyal holders as a reward for their continued support in the form of staking rewards. By aligning the interests of our customers, token holders, and the Lupo ecosystem, we are creating a sustainable and mutually beneficial environment that fosters growth and prosperity for all. Join us on this exciting journey as we redefine the e-commerce landscape with our authentic Italian flair.
- 0.5% of sales revenue will be allocated to reducing the total supply of Lupo. One a quartaly basis 0.5% of accumulited profits will be sent to dead wallet addres. As demand increase burning Lupo will reduce suplly which will in a longterm lead to Scarcity.
